"You Can Do Hard Things."

Kristie Boltz is a wife, mother, grandmother, daughter, and friend. She is the founder of My Dental CMO and a popular speaker and coach in the dental industry. In 2008, she discovered Challenged Athletes Foundation, which changed her life. As a kid, her Dad always said, "you can do hard things," and at her first CAF event (a 620-mile bike ride from San Francisco to San Diego), she discovered an entire community of people "doing hard things." From them, she learned resilience, which helped her with her cancer diagnosis in 2021. One of her goals is to raise $1M for CAF in her lifetime, and she's more than halfway there...
